

Young Community Pharmacist of the Year Award 2017

The Young Community Pharmacist of the Year Award recognises rising talent – those individuals who despite being in the early stages of their pharmacy careers are already demonstrating that they can make a difference to the pharmacy profession and the companies for whom they work and the communities they serve.

This award is open to pharmacists aged up to 30 - at the date of entry submission - who are working within any pharmacy where their involvement has been greater than six months. It is the individual qualities that will be evaluated, rather than those of any of the projects worked on.

JUDGES WILL BE LOOKING FOR:

- Judges will want to see effective communication skills with both staff and customers
- Demonstration of a commitment to mentoring or other leadership activities
- Operation within their own pharmacy liaising with key staff members and management and developing key communication skills
- A dedication and commitment to furthering the profession into the future

WHO CAN ENTER?

This category is open to all counter assistants working within both the independent and chain sectors. Applications can be through nominating an individual or yourself. Previous Irish Pharmacy Awards Young Pharmacist of the Year entrants, including winners, are also welcome to submit entries.
